

Hungarian Refugees Cross Border Canal to Freedom

SIGNALING THE WAY — Red Cross workers on the Austrian side of the Austro-Hungarian frontier wave coat and flag to signal the way for refugees seeking to cross from Soviet-dominated Hungary on foot. (AP Wirephoto)

Plane Runs Into Parking Problem

PARKING PROBLEM — Two small planes wind up in tangled mess at South Plainfield, N.J., after the motor of plane on top coked out during a take-off. The airman, Alex Van Gleich, 35, was hospitalized. (AP Wirephoto)

ESCAPING — Making use of tree limb and a guide rope, a Hungarian woman refugee crosses canal on Austria-Hungary frontier. A few steps on the tricky freedom route and she and the others reached haven in Austria. Russians have destroyed several bridges across canal in an effort to halt Hungarian exodus. Story on Page 1, Part 1. (AP Wirephoto)

COMFORTS OF HOME — Iris Sharpe, a London showgirl, lights cigarette for British Sgt. James Read at Port Said as friends look on. Entertainers were sent to Suez Canal zone to put on shows for members of Anglo-French invasion force. (AP Wirephoto)

ON ITS WAY — Regulus I guided missile spouts fire and smoke as it takes off from USS Norton Sound for a 500-mile flight. Missile was guided by the Norton Sound, two submarines and radar station at Point Arguello to the target in an area off San Nicholas Island. (Official U.S. Navy photo)